

2018 Race Across America Annapolis Volunteers

We are looking for volunteers for the Race Across America finish line. These racers are traveling over 3,000 miles from Oceanside, CA to Annapolis, MD in 12 days or less! The earliest finisher is expected to arrive Thursday, June 21st, and the latest, Monday, June 25th. Please join us in guiding them to the finish line, congratulating them on their great accomplishment, and experiencing the action first hand!

Positions needed:

- Flagger Volunteer – two flaggers are needed to wave and guide in the racers along the finishing course. Responsibilities may also include monitoring the parking lot and guiding the racers and support vehicles to designated areas and helping with traffic flow.
- Ram's Head Volunteer – The official race time ends at the Rams Head Roadhouse. This person's job is to record the racers' official finishing times, and conveying them to the Finish Line Manager.
- Rider Escort – All racers are escorted by vehicle from the Shell Station on Best Rd. to the City Dock. Coordinating closely with Race Officials, the Rider Escort will lead racers along the final miles of the RAAM route, driving at a cycling pace. Volunteers will need to provide their own vehicle.
- General – Extra hands are always needed! This person will assist the RAAM staff, run errands, and fill in where needed. Last slot to be taken after other time positions have been filled.

Volunteer shifts will be generally 6 hours – 12am-6am, 6am-12pm, 12pm-6pm, and 6pm-12am. The greatest need will be starting Friday morning through Sunday evening.

Volunteer Incentive:

- All volunteers will receive a Race Across America volunteer T-shirt.
- Volunteers dedicating 12 hours or more of their time will receive a complimentary ticket to the finishing banquet on Monday evening. ($65 Value)
- Get to work with the racers first-hand and experience their amazing accomplishments up-close.
